

Thank you very much for your interest in music study at Campbell University. Did you know that scholarship money is available for every music major! Scholarships can range for $1,000 to $3,500 per year based on an audition. Here is how to audition:

1. Apply to Campbell University and receive an admittance letter from the Admissions Office.
2. Once you have been accepted, call me or email me personally, and we will arrange an appointment for an individual audition. Auditions can be arranged on Mondays, Wednesday and Fridays at 12:00 while Campbell classes are in session October, November, January, February, March and April are the best months.
3. If you live too far away, we will consider a recording, but we prefer your audition in person.
4. If you are a singer, choose two songs in contrasting style from standard repertoire. One song in a foreign language is preferred, but not required. One song could also be from musical theatre or a sacred song. Your choir director at school can give you good guidance about what is appropriate. Bring your original music with you and we will provide the accompanist.
5. If you are a pianist, organist or guitarist, choose two pieces of music from standard repertoire. Your teacher at school or private music teacher can give you good guidance about what is appropriate.
6. If you play a band or orchestral instrument, one solo from the Allstate solo list is fine. Your band or orchestra director can give you good guidance about what is appropriate.
7. Once you audition, I will send a letter containing your scholarship information and confirm your scholarship award.
8. Instrumentalists who play in the Football Band and Pep Band can qualify for an additional $1,250 per year.
9. Voice majors who sing in the Campbell Voices can qualify for an additional $1,000 per year.

We look forward to hearing from you. We appreciate your interest and anticipate to the possibility of you studying music with us at Campbell.
