

Domestic Violence Advocacy Project (DVAP)

In collaboration with Legal Aid of NC and the Wake County private bar, students are certified under the three semester practice rule to represent victims of domestic violence in domestic violence protective order hearings.

Project Co - Coordinators: Terrie Nelson tnelson0214@email.campbell.edu and Brooks Barrett ebbarrett1029@email.campbell.edu

Reentry Project

In collaboration with Legal Aid of NC and the NC Justice Center, the Reentry Project is an initiative that assists individuals who may qualify for relief from the consequences of having a criminal record.

Project Coordinator: Melissa Botiglione mabotiglione0608@email.campbell.edu

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA)

The Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Project partners with the IRS to assist individuals who meet certain income qualifications to prepare and file tax returns.

Project Coordinator: Ayeshinae Smtih aismith1031@email.campbell.edu

Campbell Law Innocence Project (CLIP)

The Campbell Law Innocence Project (CLIP) partners law students with personnel at the NC Center on Actual Innocence to review, investigate, and make recommendations on criminal cases.

Project Coordinator: Melissa Botiglione mabotiglione0608@email.campbell.edu

Wills/Advance Directives Project

The Wills/Advance Directives Project pairs law students with private attorneys volunteering with Legal Aid of NC to interview clients and assist with drafting wills, power of attorneys, health Care POAs, and living wills.

Project Co-Coordinators: Kelley Solomon mksolomon1114@email.campbell.edu and Kaitlyn Fudge kefudge1108@email.campbell.edu

The Child's Advocate Project

Students assist pro bono attorneys in representing children in high conflict custody cases referred to The Child's Advocate/Legal Aid of NC by the Wake County Family Court.

Project Coordinator: Brittany McKinney btmckinney0406@email.campbell.edu

Veterans Project

In collaboration with Legal Aid of NC, students work with volunteer attorneys to provide legal information and assistance at local Stand Down Events to assist veterans with various legal issues.

Project Coordinator: David Nolan dfnolan0622@email.campbell.edu

Capital Area Teen Court

Teen Court gives first-time youthful offenders a second chance, while also holding them accountable. Students volunteer to play the various roles in the court system.

Project Coordinator: Joonu-Noel Coste jacoste0506@email.campbell.edu

Death Row Visitation Project

In collaboration with the Center for Death Penalty Litigation, students are paired with death row inmates housed at Central Prison and become temporary members of the inmate's legal team and meet with the inmate regularly.

Project Coordinator: Sarah Sherrington snsherrinto0628@email.campbell.edu

Naturalization Workshop Project

In collaboration with the North Carolina Advocates for Justice and the National Association of Latino Elected Officials, students help clients complete a naturalization application.

Project Co-Coordinators: Sarah Clark srclark0618@email.campbell.edu and Hannah Michalove h_michalove0511@email.campbell.edu

Service Animal Workshop Project

The Service Animal Workshop Project, in partnership with Disability Rights NC, provides law students an opportunity to learn about disability laws surrounding service animals and to provide workshops to local organizations and government entities on how best to accommodate service animal users.

Project Coordinator: Kaitlin Romanelli ktromanelli1118@email.campbell.edu

Education Law Project

In collaboration with Legal Aid of NC's Lawyer on the Line Program, the Education Law Project will allow students to assist clients and gain valuable experience in the field of education law.

Project Coordinator: Maddie Hurley mahurley0726@email.campbell.edu

Child Permanency Appeals Project

In collaboration with the Wake County Attorney's Office, students have the opportunity to write appellate briefs that respond to child placement appeals from the Juvenile Abuse, Neglect, and Dependency Court.

Project Coordinator: Rebecca Charbonneau r_charbonnea0308@email.campbell.edu