

Campbell University Clubs and Organizations

2016-2017

Accounting and Financial Planning Club:

Purpose: To educate and expose students to the vast opportunities in the accounting profession.

Advisor: Joe Berry, berry@campbell.edu

Adam Smith Club:

Purpose: To promote the principles of individual liberty and responsibility, free market economy, and a limited government.

Advisor: Dr. Dean Faulkner, bsabbey0813@email.campbell.edu

Asian Student Association:

Purpose: To share Asian culture on campus and foster relations with other groups on campus through social and community interactions.

Advisor: Borree Kwok, kwokb@campbell.edu

Astronomical Society

Purpose: To extend the knowledge of astronomy to the students, faculty, staff and community of Campbell University.

Advisor: Jason Ezell, ezell@campbell.edu

Athletic Training Club:

Purpose: To educate those with an interest in the field of athletic training and promote a better learning and working relationship among its members and all sports medicine professionals.

Advisor: Catherine Simonson, simonsonc@campbell.edu

Black Student Association

Purpose: To educate students on the literature, film, and art of African Americans.

Advisor: Dr. Kimberly B. Ward, wardk@campbell.edu

Campbell Hispanic Association

Purpose: The purpose of this organization is to spread awareness of Hispanic presence at Campbell University as representatives of Hispanic Heritage and to promote general diversity and greater understanding of different cultures.

Advisor: Dr. Tiago Jones, jonest@campbell.edu

Campbell University Association for the Education of Young Children:

Purpose: To be the voice of CU students who plan to work directly with or on behalf of Children birth to age eight.

Advisor: Dr. Connie Chester, chesterc@campbell.edu

Chemistry Club:

Purpose: To spread the love of science to others and to help other people whenever possible.

Advisor: Dr. Brian Kesling, keslingb@campbell.edu

Christian Business Initiative:

Purpose: To actively engage Christian members of the School of Business.

Advisor: Dr. Traci Pierce, piercet@campbell.edu

Circle K:

Purpose: To meet the personal needs of the individual collegian through the qualities of leadership, the rewards of service, and the unique spirit of friendship. Circle K strives to positively influence those in our society who are facing ultimate personal decisions and those who will one day, create the vision of mankind for generations to come.

Advisor: Amy Johnson, amjohnson@campbell.edu

Clinical Research Club:

Purpose: To help expose students to the field of clinical research and give them a chance to reach out and network with other students, faculty, staff, and members of the community.

Advisor: Gabrielle Morgan, morgan@campbell.edu

College Democrats:

Purpose: To advance the ideals of the Democratic Party in helping with various elections, candidates, etc.

Advisor: Dr. John Mero, meroj@campbell.edu

College Libertarians

Purpose: To represent and provide a venue for Libertarian philosophy on campus. To mobilize those who are familiar with the philosophy to take action to implement its ideas in society.

Advisor: Kate Lawrence, lawrencek@campbell.edu

College Republicans:

Purpose: To establish a common ground and community for Conservative Republicans on campus.

Advisor: Dr. Donald Schroeder, schroeder@campbell.edu

Collegiate Middle Level Association:

Purpose: To increase and develop our awareness of young adolescents and the challenges they face by: (1) Becoming advocates for young adolescents in and around our community; (2) Promoting and engaging in service learning projects within the community; (3) developing relationships with area schools and community leaders; (4) Educating the community about the needs of area schools and encouraging their participation within them; and (5) Committing to further educate ourselves about young adolescents in the future.

Advisor: Dr. Lorae Roukema, roukema@campbell.edu

Common Ground:

Purpose: To raise awareness and promote an accepting and supportive campus environment for persons of all sexual and gender identities, through outreach, education, and working with other organizations; Promote unity between the lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, and heterosexual communities at CU; Facilitate discussion and dialogue over these issues in a warm, friendly, and open atmosphere where individuals feel free to speak their personal views and feel accepted.

Advisor: Brooke Taxakis, taxakisb@campbell.edu ; Marie Berry, berry@campbell.edu

Communications Studies Club

Purpose: The purpose of the Campbell University Communication Studies Club is to provide educational and professional opportunities to current and potential Communication Studies majors and minors. It is the mission of this organization to expand and develop the skills gained within the department as well as to provide professional and personal connections to best assist members in their future endeavors.

Advisor: Dr. Dean Farmer, farmerd@campbell.edu

Criminal Justice Association

Purpose: To share and expand our knowledge of the Criminal Justice system in order to prepare ourselves for careers in this field.

Advisor: Cathy Cowling, cowling@campbell.edu

Exercise Science Club

Purpose: To promote the education, professional development, and collegiality of students pursuing majors in the department of exercise science.

Advisor: Donna Wolard, woolard@campbell.edu

Finance and Investing Club:

Purpose: To broaden the minds of the members by improving their knowledge and mastery of financial analysis, investing, markets, and business.

Advisor: Dr. Mark Steckbeck, steckbeckm@campbell.edu

Foreign Language Club:

Purpose: To broaden the minds of the members by making them aware of the various cultural differences of our world and to celebrate those differences.

Advisor: Dr. Hilda Salazar, hildas@campbell.edu

Future Officers Club:

Purpose: To support the Campbell University Future Army Officers in all their endeavors, to support various social and charitable events, to build character through a positive experience of growth and learning, and to promote and develop good citizenship, professionalism, maturity, and leadership.

Advisor: Mark Allen, allenm@campbell.edu

G-Force

Purpose: To extend an opportunity to anyone on campus, whether religious or non-religious, to serve the needs of the campus, community, and our world.

Advisor: Dr. Kathy Lopez, lopezk@campbell.edu

Gilbert T. Stephenson Trust Club:

Purpose: To help students majoring in trust to build relationships with current students, alumni, and business people.

Advisor: Jimmy Witherspoon, witherspoon@campbell.edu

Habitat for Humanity – CU Chapter:

Purpose: To serve as a constant source of fundraising and volunteers for the local (Harnett County) branch of Habitat for Humanity. This club also helps members gain real-world experience in the tasks of their future careers.

Advisor: J. Dean Farmer, farmerd@campbell.edu

Healthcare Management Club

Purpose: To educate and expose student to the vast opportunities within the healthcare industry and management industry.

Advisor: Dr. LeJon Poole, poolel@campbell.edu

International Business Club:

Purpose: To discuss and analyze the unique issues faced by managers involved in international business. The club will also serve as a forum to locate internships and study abroad opportunities and as a networking opportunity for students.

Furthermore the club will foster intercultural communication and understanding.

Advisor: Dr. Carl Broadhurst, broadhurst@campbell.edu

International Students Club:

Purpose: To encourage an understanding and appreciation of international issues, provide a friendly atmosphere for meeting people from around the world and engage in cultural exchange.

Advisor: Catherine Campbell, intlga@campbell.edu

John A. Freeman Psychology Club:

Purpose: To represent the discipline of psychology and the students interested in psychology as a major or as a career; to inform other students, groups, and the community about the importance of psychological science; and the contribute money and other resources to charities in need.

Advisor: Dr. Jutta Street, taylorj@campbell.edu

Korean-American Student Association:

Purpose: To allow opportunities for students to come together and participate in social activities and community events to diversify their education.

Advisor: Dr. Taek H. You, you@campbell.edu

Ladies & Gentlemen in Leadership:

Purpose: To create awareness for current topics, develop the skills needed to succeed in our aspiring careers, learning the trade and tools of business, and achieve excellence in professionalism with a focus in leadership.

Advisor: Dr. Kate Lawrence, lawrencek@campbell.edu

Mabel Powell English Club:

Purpose: To propagate the love of all things literary among its members and affiliated parties.

Advisor: Nathan Salisbury, salsbury@campbell.edu

Marketing Club

Purpose: To educate and expose students to the vast opportunities in the marketing and sales profession.

Advisor: Katherine Lawrence, lawrencek@campbell.edu

Math / ITS Club:

Purpose: The purpose of the Math and Computer Science Club is to further understanding of programming and logic, while providing a forum for those interested in these subjects to meet and discuss their various views and interests.

Advisor: Heather Manhart, manharth@campbell.edu

Mock Trial:

Purpose: To help prepare students for the courtroom setting and procedures involved. Competing against other teams across the nation shows students what actual trials would look like.

Advisor: Dr. John Mero, meroj@campbell.edu

Music Club:

Purpose: To broaden the minds of the members by making them aware of the various styles of music in our school and in our world.

Advisor: Debbie Dye, dyed@campbell.edu

NC Student Legislature:

Purpose: To provide students with a practical education in the political and legislative process. The North Carolina Student Legislature also affords students a statewide forum for expressing their ideas and opinions on current issues to state and national leaders. A class is offered in conjunction with the NCSL, known as Govt. 232 State Legislative Politics. This class can either be taken for 1 or 3 hours.

Advisor: Dr. John Mero, meroj@campbell.edu

Nursing Club:

Purpose: To provide students with a practical education in the political and legislative. The purpose of the Nursing Club is to have fun forging relationships, preparing for a career in nursing, and engaging in community service projects.

Advisor: Dr. Nancy Duffy, nduffy@campbell.edu

Organization of Security Students:

Purpose: To promote and understanding international and national security issues by engaging a variety of ideologies that influence and impact security issues.

Advisor: Dr. David Gray, grayd@campbell.edu

Paul Green Society:

Purpose: To provide a creative outlet for students wishing to participate in dramatic arts, enhance the theatrical experience of the community, honor the tradition of local playwright Paul Green, and provide social opportunities for students.

Advisor: Georgia Martin, marting@campbell.edu

Phi Alpha Delta:

Purpose: To promote the principles of professional advancement in a legal career. As well as provide the members helpful information in pursuing a career in law.

Advisor: Catherine Cowling, cowlingc@campbell.edu

Phi Beta Lambda:

Purpose: To provide additional opportunities for college students to develop competencies for business occupations, all the while maintaining Christian principles and stewardship. PBL is an integral part of the instructional program and in addition promotes a sense of civic and personal responsibility.

Advisor: Dr. Edward Fubara, fubarae@campbell.edu

Pre-Med/Allied Health Honors Society

Purpose: To help introduce students to different medical fields along with guiding them on the right path towards applying to medical schools. We provide them with volunteer opportunities and other tools they need to succeed into getting into medical school.

Advisor: Michelle Thomas, thomas@campbell.edu

Pre-Pharmacy Club:

Purpose: To educate members about pharmacy related fields and practices and help prepare them for pharmacy school and other pharmacy related programs.

Advisor: Brenda Blackman, blackmanb@campbell.edu

Pre-SOMA Club:

Purpose: To provide an on-campus organization to represent osteopathic medicine. Our mission is to educate and prepare osteopathic leaders and advocates, advance collaborative relationships that promote osteopathic medicine and the greater healthcare community, and to educate students and our surrounding community on osteopathic medicine's preventative and holistic approach to healthcare.

Advisor: Mattie Benball, benballm@campbell.edu

Presidential Scholars Club:

Purpose: To continue to develop and maintain strong character, commitment to service, and excellent leadership ability. As a member of Campbell's Presidential Scholars Club, you will learn and grow as an individual and student as well meet new people and make valuable friendships. As a member you will strengthen your résumé, get to know your professors, and be exposed to many leadership opportunities.

Advisor: Scott Fedorchak, fedorchaks@campbell.edu

Professional Golf Management Student Association:

Purpose: To promote the interests of the Professional Golf Management (PGM) Program by providing services and opportunities for its students to further strengthen their education, enjoyment, and involvement in the game of golf.

Advisor: Kenneth Jones, jonesk@campbell.edu

Public Affairs Club

Purpose: To encourage and recognize outstanding scholarship and accomplishments in public affairs and administration. The club will foster Integrity, professionalism, and creative performance in the conduct of governmental and related public service activities.

Advisor: Dr. John Mero, meroj@campbell.edu

Religion Club:

Purpose: To provide fellowship opportunities to Religion majors and minors through worship, service, and forums; to inspire intellectual growth, ministerial skills, and provide spiritual nourishment.

Advisor: Dr. Kathryn Lopez, lopezk@campbell.edu

Social Entrepreneurship Club:

Purpose: To emphasize the importance of business by encouraging students to incorporate their academic curriculum with the social issues important to them from a business platform.

Advisor: Dr. Daniel P. Maynard, maynard@campbell.edu

Social Work Club:

Purpose: To provide a focal point for the energies of the social work students and other interested students. Through the club students will be able to impact their community and the campus through their service. Club members will be able to identify and dress the collective interest, needs, and concerns of this campus.

Advisor: Dr. Mallard-Barnes, mallardbarnes@campbell.edu

South Asian Awareness through Humanities:

Purpose: To create awareness about South Asians through humanities.

Advisor: Dr. Umesh Varma, varma@campbell.edu

Sports Leadership Club:

Purpose: To inform students about the growth, and opportunities in the sports industry, through meeting and interacting with sport industry professionals. To provide students with opportunities to network with other sport, athletics, and business minded students, as well as sport industry professionals.

Advisor:

Student North Carolina Association of Educators:

Purpose: SNACE will promote and protect the welfare of its members, encourage members to serve others in our community, and advance the cause of education in North Carolina.

Advisor: Dr. Oney Graham, grahamo@campbell.edu

Students of AMF at Campbell University:

Purpose: Established as a university-sponsored organization for the purpose of supporting students grieving the illness or death of a loved one or friend and providing opportunities for the entire campus community to volunteer and participate in events to raise money and awareness for causes important to the chapter members.

Advisor: Christy Jordan, jordanc@campbell.edu

Teaching for Exceptional Children:

Purpose: To support our new teacher education degree in special education. To give special education teacher candidates an opportunity to get involved in local special education activities.

Advisor: Dr. David Dennis, dennisd@campbell.edu

Veterans Club:

Purpose: To talk about life after the military. To support each other with veterans issues, and to help new veterans readjust to life after the military.

Advisor: Joy Cox, coxj@campbell.edu

Walker Biology Club:

Purpose: To provide an opportunity for the students of the biological, pre-professional, research, or agricultural sciences at Campbell University to have the common benefits of professional association and to have the intellectual stimulation that arises from the professional activity of preparing and presenting scientific material before biological audience.

Advisor: Dr. Mike Larsen, larsenl@campbell.edu ; Dr. Daren Guzman, guzman@campbell.edu

 Clubs are currently inactive but interested students are welcome to reinstate the club to active status.