

Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (20 U.S.C. §§ 1681, et seq)

Campbell University is committed to a policy of equal opportunity for men and women, and as such, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, sex, gender, age, national origin, religion or disability, or status as a veteran, except where exemption is appropriate and allowed by law in admissions nor in the administration of educational programs, activities, and policies and Title IX requires it not discriminate in such a manner. Students who believe they have been subjected to discrimination or harassment in violation of this policy should follow the procedure outlined in the Student Handbook for a Title IX violation. Inquiries regarding the application of Title IX and other laws, regulations and policies prohibiting discrimination may be directed to: Mrs. Kellie Slappey Nothstine, Title IX Coordinator, P.O. Box 95 (Wallace Student Center, Room 239), Buies Creek, NC, 27506, 910-893-2039 / FAX 910-893-1534; nothstine@campbell.edu. Inquiries may also be directed to the United States Department of Education's Office for Civil Rights, District of Columbia Office, U.S. Department of Education, 400 Maryland Avenue, S.W. If you believe you have been the subject of sexual assault, harassment, discrimination, or violence, this should be reported to the Title IX Coordinator. The process involves an immediate initial investigation to determine if there is reasonable cause to believe the nondiscrimination policy has been violated. If so, the University will initiate a prompt, thorough and impartial investigation. This investigation is designed to provide a fair and reliable determination about whether the university's nondiscrimination policy has been violated. If so, the university will implement a prompt and effective remedy designed to end the discrimination, prevent its recurrence and address its effects. Please refer to the Student Handbook for the policy and procedures.
