

The following is an update to the Accreditation statement in the 2013-2015 Campbell University Bulletin for Undergraduate Studies. Updated: January 22, 2015

Accreditation

Campbell University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award Associate, Baccalaureate, Masters, Education Specialist, and Doctorate degrees. Contact the Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Campbell University. The Commission should be contacted only if there is evidence that appears to support the University's significant non-compliance with an accreditation requirement or standard. Normal inquiries about Campbell University, such as admission requirements, financial aid, educational programs, etc., should be addressed directly to the appropriate office of the University and not to the Commission's office.

In addition, Campbell's Professional Education programs are accredited by the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE) and approved by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI). The Social Work program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). Also, the School of Law is accredited by the American Bar Association; the College of Pharmacy & Health Sciences by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education; the Physician Assistant Program by the Review Commission on Education for the Physician Assistant (ARC-PA); the School of Medicine by the Commission on Osteopathic College Accreditation (COCA); and the Divinity School by The Commission on Accrediting of The Association of Theological Schools in the United States and Canada (ATS). We also have accreditations in the following areas: PGA Golf Management Program by the PGA of America; the Athletic Training Program by the Commission on Accreditation of Athletic Training Education (CAATE); and the Business School by the Accreditation Council for Business Schools & Programs (ACBSP). For specific accreditation statements and statuses, please read below under the section for each college or school.

Campbell University is a member of the Servicemembers Opportunity Colleges (SOC) Consortium. SOC, established in 1972, consists of national higher education associations and approximately 1,900 institutional members. SOC Consortium institutional members subscribe to principles and criteria to ensure that quality academic programs are available to military students including those on active duty, Coast Guard personnel, reservists, members of the National Guard, family members, civilian employees of the Department of Defense, and veterans of all Services. As a SOC Consortium member, this institution ensures servicemembers and their family members share in appropriately accredited postsecondary educational opportunities available to other citizens. Flexibility of programs and procedures particularly in admissions, counseling, credit transfer, course articulations, recognition of non-traditional learning experiences, scheduling, course format, and residency requirements are provided to enhance access of military students and their family members to higher education programs. As membership in SOC may change, please consult with the SOC/POC, John Roberson, Dean, Adult & Online Education.
