Distinguishing the Difference: EFC (Expected Family Contribution) versus Financial Aid Award Package

EFC (Expected Family Contribution)

This number is used by the school to determine how much financial aid students are eligible for. This is NOT the amount of money you will pay or the amount of aid that will be received.

Financial Aid Package Financial Aid Award Package

This is the offer from our school based on the FAFSA and EFC to help offset the cost of education. Students will login into their Self-Service page to view and accept/reject their awards. Academic Merit Scholarship Requirements- Campbell University Academic Merit Scholarships (Presidential, ScottEllis, CU Promise, Transfer Scholarship, Campbell Grant, Faith Grant) are for main campus undergraduate students attending full-time (at least 12 credits hours) during fall and spring semesters only. These scholarships are not transferable to graduate or professional programs and are applicable to tuition only. The cumulative grade point average (CGPA) requirement for all scholarships are below. The student's CGPA requirements will be reviewed after the completion of two semesters at Campbell University.
