

CAMPBELL
UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
Buies Creek, North Carolina 27506

AIG Licensure Program Cohort Tuition Agreement

Length of Program: Four courses (12 semester hours)

- Introduction to Gifted Education (3 hours)
- Curriculum Methods and Models/Curriculum Differentiation for the Gifted Learner (3 hours)
- Teaching and Learning Strategies for the Gifted Learner (3 hours)
- Problems and Issues in Gifted Education (3 hours)

Time for completion: 1-2 years

Cohort size: Minimum of 20 students to Maximum of 30 students

Tuition per course for each student: $625

Total Tuition per student: $2500

Total Tuition per cohort*: $50,000-$75,000

*Once a cohort is established the tuition will not change for that cohort.

Delivery of Course: The program may be delivered face to face, blended, or fully on-line.

Connection to Locally Developed AIG Plan:

Within the four course sequence, the “Standards for Academically or Intellectually Gifted Teacher Candidates” will be embedded throughout all courses. In addition, the AIG director/coordinator will have the opportunity to collaborate with Campbell University to enhance these offerings based upon the local requirements for Gifted Education found within the Local AIG Plan for the district.

For More Information:

Dr. Chris Godwin
Director of Teacher Education
Coordinator of Academically or Intellectually Gifted Licensure Program
Office: 910-814-4331
Email: godwinc@campbell.edu
Web: <http://ww2.campbell.edu/education/graduate/programs/licensure-only/>