	Sterling Tharrington, Administrative Assistant for the Graduate Programs, stharrington@campbell.edu; 910-814-5515. (For information only).
Additional Registration Information	Please note: Graduate students may register for classes up to the 2nd class meeting. Students who attend classes without being officially registered for the course will not be given credit for the course. If you are not on the roll for the class you are taking, you must see Sterling Tharrington in room 224. A student must be fully admitted to a program before registering for a third course. If you have any questions on admission status, please contact the School of Education Graduate Admissions office at 1-800-334-4111, ext. 5515 or direct at 910-814-5515. Campbell University reserves the right to limit enrollment and to cancel classes with insufficient enrollment.
Graduate Credit	Courses may apply toward a graduate degree upon official admission to the graduate program at Campbell University. A student must hold a baccalaureate degree to be eligible for credit in a graduate course. These courses may be used for renewal of teaching licenses. All questions concerning license renewal should be directed to the student's school unit.
Withdrawal from a Course	Students must officially drop a class to avoid receiving a grade of “F” for the class and being charged for the class. Students who officially drop a class by the fifth day from start of term date (this includes weekends and holidays) will receive a full refund. An official drop from can be obtained by emailing Mr. Sterling Tharrington, stharrington@campbell.edu. It is the responsibility of the student to obtain all necessary signatures. The form must be returned to Sterling Tharrington, stharrington@campbell.edu.
M.S.A. & M.Ed. Comprehensive Exams	M.S.A. and M.Ed. students must take and pass comprehensive exams. The comprehensive exams are administered two times yearly, typically, the first Saturday in November and the first Saturday in March. There is a third comps administered in June for M.S.A. students only. APPLICATIONS to take the comprehensive exams must be submitted two weeks in advance. Applications to take the comprehensive exams in March are due by February 15th. Retakes for students that did not pass the March administration will be the first Saturday in April. Retakes for students that did not pass the November administration will be on first Saturday in December. Applications must be turned into your advisor by the deadline. An official application form can be obtained by emailing Mr. Sterling Tharrington, stharrington@campbell.edu.
Counseling Programs Comprehensive Exams	Candidates completing a degree program in Clinical Mental Health Counseling and School Counseling must pass the Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE) during the semester before their graduation semester. Candidates should consult with their academic advisor early in their program regarding application and other process issues concerning the comprehensive examination. Importantly, candidates taking comprehensive examinations must be prepared to respond to questions based on all courses in their specific programs. Dates for Comprehensive Examinations are communicated to students via Counseling Faculty.
