Graduate Schedule, Fall 2026

Note - Students must officially withdraw from a class to avoid receiving a grade of “F” and being charged for the class. Students must officially drop a class by the first five days of the semester (this includes weekends and holidays).

Withdrawal from a Course	Students must officially withdraw from a class to avoid receiving a grade of “F” for the class and being charged for the class. Students who officially drop a class by the fifth day from start of term date (this includes weekends and holidays) will receive a full refund. An official form for withdrawing from a course may be obtained outside the School of Education & Human Sciences Graduate Office (room B-19). The form must be returned to Sterling Tharrington in room B-19, mail to PO Box 369, Buies Creek, NC 27506, or by email to stharrington@campbell.edu. It is the responsibility of the student to obtain all necessary signatures. No more than one absence is allowed for each course taken during the fall, spring, and summer semesters. Exceeding these limits may affect your grade.
Attendance Policy	School of Education & Human Sciences Policy expects no more than one (1) absence per course in each semester. Exceeding this limit may affect the student’s grade and enrollment status.
M.Ed. Comprehensive Exams	M.Ed. students must take and pass comprehensive exams. The comprehensive exams are administered two times yearly, typically, the first Saturday in November and the first Saturday in March. APPLICATIONS to take the comprehensive exams in November are due by October 15th. Applications to take the comprehensive exams in March are due by February 15th. Retakes for students that did not pass the March administration will be the first Saturday in April. Retakes for students that did not pass the November administration will be on first Saturday in December. Applications must be turned into your advisor by the deadline. An official application form can be obtained by emailing Mr. Sterling Tharrington, stharrington@campbell.edu.
Counseling Programs Comprehensive Exams	Candidates completing a degree program in Clinical Mental Health Counseling and School Counseling must pass the Counselor Preparation Comprehensive Examination (CPCE) during the semester before their graduation semester. Candidates should consult with their academic advisor early in their program regarding application and other process issues concerning the comprehensive examination. Importantly, candidates taking comprehensive examinations must be prepared to respond to questions based on all courses in their specific programs. Dates for Comprehensive Examinations are communicated to students via Counseling Faculty.
Graduation	Candidates must apply to graduate. Visit https://www.campbell.edu/registrar/graduation/#apply-for-grad or the registrar’s page to apply. The deadline for graduation will be posted when the registrar’s office sets it. Your gown and hood must be purchased at the bookstore. Candidates Graduating in August will be allowed to participate in the December ceremony since there is no ceremony in August.
