KIMBERLY B. WARD, MA

*Instructor of English
Campbell University*

For the past 16 years, Kimberly Ward has had the privilege of instructing English students at Campbell University. Before coming to Campbell, she taught high school students English for 13 years. A graduate from North Carolina State University with a B.A. in English, Ms. Ward also has her teaching license and an M.A. in English with a concentration in creative writing.

The proud mother of three world-changing sons, Ms. Ward also considers it an honor to love a world-changing goddaughter. Currently she lives on a small non-working farm right outside Buies Creek with her middle son, three dogs, and a cat. For the past 30 years, she has been a member of Abundant Life Worship Center.

AWARDS

THE CLINICAL EXCELLENCE AWARD

Purpose: To recognize a graduating DPT student who has demonstrated significant improvement or consistent qualities of clinical excellence through professionalism, clinical skills, and commitment to promoting the physical therapy profession. Criteria for selection includes successful integration of didactic knowledge into clinical practice, feedback from clinical instructors related to outstanding professional behaviors, commitment to the mission of the DPT Program through rural-based clinical activities, interprofessional activities, compassionate patient-centered care, and demonstrated clinical performance to elevate the practice of physical therapy including use of EBM and advocacy such as participation in the Pro Bono Clinic or Farm Worker's Clinic.

THE LEADERSHIP AWARD

Purpose: To recognize a graduating DPT student who demonstrates exemplary leadership qualities. This person performs established and innovative methods in the delivery of patient care, initiates involvement in community service, charities and events, and develops relationships in professional organizations locally and nationally.

THE RESEARCH AWARD

Purpose: To recognize DPT students who diligently served to create an evidence-based body of knowledge to advance practice and education. It is meant to recognize and honor students who, in collaboration with faculty and their research teams, demonstrated outstanding research service beyond the academic requirements of the program. This award is meant to honor students who dedicated time, effort, and energy to learn, grow and ultimately maximize the integrity of physical therapy service delivery through the production of knowledge.

THE ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE AWARD

Purpose: To recognize a graduating DPT student for outstanding academic achievement in coursework completed during the Doctor of Physical Therapy program. This graduating student has also shown a commitment to lifelong learning and to fostering learning in others.

DOCTOR OF PHYSICAL THERAPY OATH

“I swear to fulfill, to the best of my ability, this covenant:

- I will strive every day to deliver skilled, compassionate, patient-centered care
- I will use evidence-supported practice and sound clinical judgement, respect cultural differences and model professional responsibility with every patient
- I will advocate on behalf of my patients and profession to provide care for those who have been underserved
- I will not be ashamed to say “I am unsure” nor will I fail to consult with my colleagues when the skills of another are needed for a patient’s recovery
- I will actively participate with an interdisciplinary team to provide comprehensive patient care
- I will remember that I remain a member of society, with special obligations to my fellow human beings, those sound of mind and body as well as the impaired.
- I will seek to preserve the finest traditions of my calling and experience the joy of healing those who seek my help

With this oath, as a Doctor of Physical Therapy, I promise to pursue a purposeful life and meaningful service
